VITAPHONE THEATER MAN PROMISES GOOD PROGRAM AT NILES

TALKING PICTURE HOUSE AT NILES

Only "Talkie" Between Oakland And San Jose

Niles is to have a "talkie". In the future the Niles theater will "speak for itself." According to an announcement made Wednesday by C. E. Peterson and Manager Helm, the local theater will be closed Holy Week for the installation of apparatus which will make it possible for local theater goers to enjoy all the "talking" productions distributed by Vitaphone and the best talking picture concerns in the country. The theater will have its opening on Sunday, March 31.

This will be the only talking picture house between Oakland and San Jose and is a distinct step forward for the entertainment phase of Niles' life.

Mr. Petersen's faith in the growth and future of the town is shown by his willingness to invest the several thousand dollars necessary for this improvement in the Niles theater.

Delegation to Ad Club Dinner from Oakland Tuesday, 6:30

One of the best programs and most enthusiastic meetings ever held in Niles is anticipated for next Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at Boitano's restaurant when members of the Advertising Club, the Chamber of Commerce and their friends will gather to enjoy a program being prepared by Mike Cohen, of the Vitaphone Theater, Oakland.

Chicken and raviolis and all the trimmings will appear on the menu. Special decorations are to be arranged. Reservations are now being taken by Mrs. Chas. Law, Niles 72.

Mr. Cohen announced Tuesday that a number of the Oakland Advertising club members would be in the visiting group in addition to the several entertainers he will bring along. Caroline Gilman, radio artist; Bob Meddern, vocalist; Joe Salomon, pianologist, are among those who will give Niles one of the rousingest fun fests ever celebrated here.

In answer to a special invitation sent to the Chamber of Commerce, a big delegation is expected from that organization whose work dovetails but does not over-lap with the Ad Club.

Those who are interested in advertising the community are especially invited to be present.

Season's Rain Is Above Last Year's

One and .18 inches rain fell during the past storm, broadcast as California's million dollar rain. Peas, spinach and the orchards were greatly benefited by the downpour. The season's total, according to Harvy Braun at the Southern Pacific is 14.62 as compared with 12.01 this date last year. In March, 1928, however, six and a half inches fell.

NEW LEGION BUILDING BEGINS CONSTRUCTION PROGRAM JULY FIRST

Ground Breaking Plans Already Under Way

Washington Post of American Legion held its regular meeting Tuesday evening. It was announced that the ground breaking ceremony for the proposed memorial building would be held on July 1.

Tentative plans have already been drawn by the building committee composed of E. Dixon Bristow, R. A. Griffin, J. E. Dutra, F. X. Veit, Roland Bendel, and D. F. Gatchel.

The building is to be built at a cost of $40,000 by Alameda county on the property donated by J. C. Shinn on Second street, Niles.

Some of the features of the proposed building are: Large auditorium, lodge room, concrete construction, and Spanish gardens.

This building will be a fitting memorial for which Washington Township will justly be proud to possess.

Several large checks were sent out by the secretary for welfare work. The co-operation of the legion boys is shown by the way they are to assist in the coming Welfare dance.

STATE HIGHWAY THRU NILES WILL BE ONLY THIRTY FEET WIDE

F. V. JONES IS CANDIDATE FOR SCHOOL TRUSTEE

Ed Rose Solicits Votes of the Community For Niles Man

F. Vernon Jones has declared his intention of running for the office of trustee of the Washington Union highschool at Centerville, the election to be held on March 29.

According to Ed Rose who has charge of Mr. Jones' campaign, this candidate is the logical man to re-fill the place he has held on the board in the past.

As a participant in all progressive affairs concerning the community, Mr. Jones has won the distinction of being one of the foremost citizens, of Niles, Mr. Rose states and further continues:

"Niles should be represented on the highschool board.

"This community needs to have its voice in the conduct of the highschool affairs and Mr. Jones is the man to express that opinion.

Without reflecting upon the ability of the other contestants for the position, Mr. Rose feels that there is no doubt that Mr. Jones is the best possible candidate for trustee on the board of the Washington Union highschool."

Letter to Chamber of Commerce From Mr. Skeggs

The new state highway to go through the main street of Niles will be only thirty feet wide and will not make any marked changes in the present route, according to a letter received Wednesday by J. E. Townsend, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

The letter which came from John H. Skeggs, district engineer, stated in substance:

Plans are to place additional pavement in the present roadway on the main street of Niles, between the existing curb on the west side and to the right-of-way on the east side. We do not anticipate asking additional right-of-way.

The pavement at present is eighteen feet wide and will be made thirty feet wide with approximately fifteen feet on each side of the center of the present roadway.

This is good news for those who were concerned for the fate of the trees along the main street and will also save much inconvenience for those whose places of business would have had to be moved in case the highway through Niles was considerably widened.

Mrs. W. B. Kirk has returned home after being in Merritt hospital for a tonsil operation.

The deceased was a native of Niles and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Leo Sheen, of San Jose, and Mrs. L. Lorenzen, of Oakland, and two brothers, William and Tom Bliss, of Niles.

Efforts were made to locate Tom Bliss who left his home several days ago without leaving word as to his destination..

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at the Decoto Masonic cemetery by F. Vernon Jones.

Injunction Denied Against E. Nagli

The application of Joseph Bauhofer for a writ of injunction requesting the Superior Court of Alameda County to restrain Ernest Nagli from soliciting the patronage of the former customers of Joseph Bauhofer was denied by the Honorable Judge James G. Quinn, Judge of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Alameda. After a hearing upon the demurrer, which had been interposed by Nagli, the court set the entire matter down for trial for March 22nd, 1929, and it is expected that upon that date the case will be tried and heard on its merits. Mr. Nagli will continue to serve his customers. His patronage is increasing daily due to the prompt and efficient service given by Mr. Nagli to his customers.

J. D. Ferry, and family, attended the funeral of J. Thorpe, of Stockton on Wednesday. The deceased, a former resident of Niles, was killed accidentally when he was crossing a highway to view the wreckage of an automobile.

Win a Prize! Write a Slogan To Advertise this Community

Win a prize! $ $ $ —Five dollars is offered by the Niles Advertising Club for the best slogan for the community and anybody and everybody is eligible whether they live in Niles or not. Already a number of slogans have been mailed in from Oakland and other communities which have heard of the contest. Not only is the $5 an inducement but the honor of contributing the slogan adds interest to the matter. All slogans should be mailed to the secretary of the Ad Club, Mrs. J. C. Shinn, Niles.

So much interest has been evidenced in this matter that the time has been extended until the first of April. School children are especially invited to participate.

L. E. Smith and Jack Crawford were appointed by President Harvey Braun at Tuesday's meeting to represent the Chamber of Commerce among the judges. Three members of the Ad Club will be appointed to complete the committee which will finally select the best slogan.

This slogan must be short and snappy. It is for the entire community and will be used in advertising this section. Some of those which have been suggested which may aid others in the wording of their slogans are: Niles for Health and Wealth; Niles, the Canyon City; Niles—within commuting distance of the Bay Cities; Niles—the Commuters Paradise; Niles, the city by the Beatiful Canyon; Niles, a home town; Niles, with the climate the rest of the state boasts about; etc.

VIOLATORS OF GAME LAW TO TAKE APPEAL

Advertising pays dividends.

Editorial Comment

THE NEW ADMINISTRATION

THE REINS of government are now in the hands of Hoover, internationally known as a civil engineer and as the food administrator of Belgium. As secretary of commerce nothing of a distinguishing nature marked his incumbency under the maladministration of Harding and the big-business dictatorship of Coolidge. So it is an open question, the capacity of the new president for compounding formulas to heal the political ills of this mighty nation.

After a life-work demanding keen judgment in recognizing instantly the abilities of subordinates, the selection of the new cabinet is a surprise to many. Its weakness seems to be apparent, though time we hope, will dispell this interpretation. Certainly among the ten who form the Hoover official family, but two are well known beyond the borders of their own states. Of these two, one is held with no particular love by the average man, who in the last analysis is the PEOPLE, though sadly, making but little impression upon the political affairs of this country. We refer of course to Mellon, worth hundreds of millions—a man concerned over neither the happiness, the industrial nor business health of the American people as a whole. Not a savant harnessing the great financial knowledge he possesses that the tax of the poor may be lightened. Not that type of patriot, but a moneyed wizard who has made gold his god, his master; and, using his great—better that we say unlimited and unbridled—power to lighten the tax of giant corporations who, during his tenure of office have received tax refunds in the staggering sum of $2,614,896,000. This mighty gift to the wealthy has been done privately—with no government commission, no federal agency passing upon or approving the refund.

And this is the man that Hoover has chosen to again dominate the treasury department.

The other of the pair, who is known beyond the circumscribed boundary of his own little bailiwick is Henry L. Stimson, now governor general of the Phillipines, and secretary of war under the ponderous Taft. Stimson is, apparently, a man of large capacities and democratic in his conduct.

** * **

James J. Davis, former Pennsylvania steel worker, has been retained as secretary of labor. His natural sympathies are unmistakably with the man who labors with his hands, and his retention seems a good one at this time.

** * **

The other seven are mediocre politically, and generally unknown. Of course that is not proof that they are weak and will not develop talent and force that may, ere the Hoover regime passes into history, become outstanding figures in national administration and international politics.

It seems to the writer that in the choice of a cabinet, personal friendship should not influence a president in the selection of that body.

Personal loyalty and true friendship that indures in the hour of great success and mighty honors is a wonderful thing, but friendship should be rewarded with positions in one's private enterprises and not at the expense and possibly the serious embarrassment of the nation.

In California there are several commanding figures, but sadly, in this instance, they have been affiliated with the progressive wing of the republican party, therefore are not eligible to sit in the seats of the mighty in Washington. So a provincial college president, wholly inexperienced in the conservation of natural resources, practically unknown beyond the campus of Palo Alto, has been hoisted into the high position of secretary of the interior by grace of personal friendship and college fellowship.

In his inaugural address, the idea which was projected into the forefront of the Hoover speech seemed the inforcement of the Eighteenth amendment. And that was fit and proper. The nation rallied to Hoover's standard on that issue, and he would be remiss indeed in his obligation if no honest attempt was made to enforce a law

GYMNASIUM NEEDED

Washington Union high school has no gymnasium and the students are beginning to feel the need of this part of a first-class school's equipment seriously. The following editorial appearing in the last issue of "The Hatchet" states the case emphatically:

How can a gymnasium be acquired, and of what necessity is it? These are two of the questions the general public is asking. These questions are simply and truthfully answered by the students of Washington High school who have made an extensive survey of other school systems.

Facts show us that the high schools around us having the same assessed valuation or in cases a much lower valuation are enjoying many more benefits than ourselves. Schools with one-third our valuation have a gymnasium and in many cases two of them. Yet, Washington High with a larger and greater valuation has not even one gymnasium.

Several times in the past the students have raised the necessary money for many things that they desired and needed. An example of this is the new curtain which has recently been installed in the High School Auditorium, a moving picture machine, chairs, and three hundred dollars worth of dishes.

Students Raise Funds

For the past two or three years the students have been building up a curtain fund by having paper drives and giving entertainments. Finally, they accumulated a sum of a little over five hundred dollars. Our faithful Board of Trustees were among the first to realize how the students had worked to raise such a sum, and gave us two hundred dollars to add to the amount already raised. Now we have a curtain of which we are justly proud. It was well worth the effort.

The chairs in our Auditorium were acquired in a similar method. Loyal are the students who work for that which is rightfully theirs, and faithful is the Board who stands back of them.

At present we are confronted with a much more difficult problem. We realize the value and necessity of a gymnasium. Another fund might be started, but it would take years to accumulate the necessary amount for such an undertaking. The cooperation and assistance of the general public is needed. It should be a part of your duty as a citizen of the Township to become acquainted with this fact, and to study the problem.

Necessary By State Law

A gymnasium is a necessity for many reasons. The first and probably most important is health. It is a state law that students of California must have a certain amount of work in physical education. It has been impossible for us to follow this requirement as we should. Rain and cold weather have kept us in doors a good part of the time, which hinders physical educational studies, as well as enjoyment. The boys have lost games and forfeited others due to the lack of practice because of cold or rainy days. And yet—some of the Township people jeer, and say that our teams are no good. We ask you, how can they be good if there is no place available for practice?

A gymnasium is also necessary from an economic view point. Do you know that every year from 50 to 70 dollars is spent for renting halls in which to hold basket ball games?

Have you ever thought of the expense which the students incur to give their socials? Class dues are high because halls must be rented for social functions. Wouldn't it be much better to have these right in our own high school? There is no better place than a gymnasium to hold these functions. The money saved annually for the rent of halls for socials would amount to nearly 60 dollars. This does not include money spent for gas nor wear and tear on cars going back and forth from the school to the hall to prepare for an evening's entertainment.

Class dues would be cut nearly one-half. Who pays for these dues? You, the parent, so why not eliminate this expense?

Would Make Money

A gymnasium would not only save money but make money as well. An admittance charge for league games would enable our high school to make a little money which in turn could be used for equipment and upkeep of the gymnasium. Many schools are enjoying these profits and are able to have better equipment, and spend the money for the betterment of their school. Why not do this at Washington High?

A gymnasium means to us, more school spirit, better team work, physical and mental aid, money earned, and money saved! Money can be saved by school, student and parent. Think what this means. It gives the student that "stay at home" spirit; to stay at school for their social functions instead of going most any place in the Township. It gives the parents a confident feeling that their child is safe within the walls of their school having a good time.

It makes the taxpayer proud of his accomplishment. Students certainly admire such a parent and such a taxpayer.

The gymnasium would give the public of our township a 100 percent chance to become better acquainted with one another. They could attend the games, social affairs, meet the faculty and Washington High students. In all, each person would be one of us.

A gymnasium is a great necessity to both student and you, and is truly most economical.

Danger of Dope to Children Told to Township Audiences

"The dope evil is not confined to the under-world nor to any specific part of the globe; it is universal and is a menace to every boy and girl regardless of race, color or social position," states Earle A. Rowell, state organizer of the Anti-Narcotic Organizations who was in Washington Township this week, speaking Tuesday at the Chamber of Commerce.

"Science is stunned by the fact that drug addiction is not merely a vice of the weak-willed, but is a terrible disease that is more incurable than cancer, that the torture induced by being deprived of the drugs drives victims to insanity, to lives of crime, or to suicide to end their agony," said Mr. Rowell.

Associated with the executives of the "White Cross," the international anti-narcotic organization, are many prominent and well-known men, including Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, Dr. David Starr Jordan, Rabbi Louis Newman, and others. At present there are three clubs, one at San Francisco, one at Fresno and another at San Jose.

Mr. Rowell is the author of a book, "Battling the Wolves of Society," in which he writes graphically of his personal periences with dope addicts and describes and pictures the various ways of smuggling dope into the United States which stands third with India and China in the battle.

The "dove belt" is worn next to the skin carrying thousands of dollars worth of drugs. New York Customs officials discovered $500,000 worth of narcotics in a barrel labeled "olive oil." A Bible was found with holes cut through the pages to hide drug instruments. Drugs have been hidden in crucifix's, in the hair of the peddlers, in loaded cigars, under women's garters, in the gauntlets of gloves, under the broad lapels of an overcoat, or in the hollow heel of a shoe.

"Nearly every boat that plies the seven seas carries, lurking somewhere in its hold, camouflaged under some common name and hidden from the prying eyes of officials, a packet of this diabolic abomination. Some of the most highly civilized nations in the world, England, Switzerland, Germany, France, to mention only a few, not only connive at the spread of this plague but publicly encourage it, for they derive vast sums in revenue from its use," states this book.

Mr. Rowell states further: "This narcotic evil has become a vivid danger to all humanity, and the whole world must grapple with it as a matter of self-preservation. Just as the man with smallpox is no more the private affair of the persons afflicted, but the grave concern of the whole city or state, so the growing and selling of narcotics has ceased to be the personal concern of a few individuals who derive a fat revenue from the debauching of others.

"The children suffer most from this terrible curse. The reason youth falls an easy prey to the peddler is because they go through school getting little or no instruction concerning the danger of addiction and the wiles of the rascally pedler. It takes only four or five whiffs of the drug to make an addict."

ETHYL
HAS NO SUBSTITUTE
No other gasoline will give the performance of Ethyl!
Ethyl compound was perfected after seven years intensive research in the great laboratories of the General Motors Corporation—after the testing of more than 33,000 separate formulas. Prior to its discovery, high compression motors were commercially impractical while today, as the result of Ethyl, high compression performance is available in more than 68% of all automobiles manufactured. Forty-two of the greatest oil companies in the world have endorsed Ethyl and add it to their finest gasoline.
Ethyl gasoline will improve the performance of any car. With Ethyl, carbon deposits actually increase the power and efficiency of old style motors, and to secure maximum efficiency from modern high compression motors, Ethyl is an absolute necessity. The many advantages of Ethyl are easily proved in your own car—greater speed, power and acceleration, easier driving with less gear shifting in traffic and on hills, and the elimination of the destructive, annoying vibration that hastens the depreciation of your motor
Do not be misled by imitators who attempt to capitalize on the recognition given Ethyl. Your protection is the genuine Ethyl trade mark on every Ethyl pump. Try Ethyl today for a new thrill in motoring.

ALICE

MANY YEARS AGO a professor of Mathematics was asked to help raise funds for a charitable organization. He was fond of his child—not too busy to take her on his knee and tell her stories. He was asked to write some of his stories for sale for the charity. He wrote "Alice in Wonderland."

Professor Carrol's book was a great success because he put his whole heart into his work. Everyone has read the story.

Recently a first edition sold for $75,000 for one book. The New York collector said there is just one other first edition copy in the world.

The reason for the price is scarcity.

Think it over when you shop at the chain stores.

The National Catholic Shrine

THE shrine of the Immaculate Conception at Brookland, District of Columbia, now building, promises to be the largest Catholic church in the Western hemisphere—465 feet long and 238 feet wide, its massive dome 90 feet in diameter rising 254 feet, its slender campanile or bell tower towering skyward 32 feet—Romanesque in style. Exclusive of interior adornments and art works of fabulous value, the cost of construction has been set at $5,000,000.

The crypt—unexcelled in our land, it is claimed—a veritable forest of rare marble columns gathered from all parts of the world, is to contain 15 chapels, with a main altar, will in itself be a noble cathedral with seats for 1,500 persons. Its ceiling, capable of sustaining a weight of approximately 1,000,000 pounds, will support the main floor which will seat 7,000 persons. The foundation stone, set September 23, 1920, was the occasion of one of the greatest religious ceremonies ever held in America.

The entire world has been searched for embellishments, one of the most outstanding of which will be a huge reproduction in mosaic of "The Immaculate Conception" from the pope. The statue of "Our Lady of Washington"—selected as patroness of this national shrine—is to stand in front of it and present the first appeal to all visitors.

Erected as an everlasting monument evidencing the love of the Catholics of America for Mary Immaculate, it will proclaim "The glory of God, the power of goodness of His Divine Son, the love of the Holy Spirit, and the intimate union of Mary Immaculate with the Blessed Trinity in her unique quality of Mother of God."

When this $125 is paid it leaves only $100 more to wipe out the obligation.

The next Guild meeting will be at Memorial Hall on March 20, with Mrs. W. Attwood and Mrs. M. Allen as hostesses.

What's In a Name?

By Jessie Higley Weathers

Perhaps nothing in a material sense, yet when the name of any town large or small is changed to another, right then it loses its identity with the past.

Centerville—whoever it was that had the nerve to even sugest its name be changed, should as the writer of the article in a recent issue of the Register said—"If any one objects to the name of Centerville for fear of being called a "Hick" they should move to the city at once." I agree with that person.

What's in a name? Names mean a geat deal, there is a reason back of every name given whether it be to a child, town or city. Even mining camps have reasons for their queer names. There is a wealth of interesting lore connected with the names of many of these mining camps. Sometimes the name is given to perpetuate the name of a dear one, for instance the "Jack and Jill" mine in Oklahoma, near Carlin was named for the two children of Mr. H. Scuby, who developed the mine. The "Domado" mine was coined from the first two letters of the Christian names of the three children of Mr. J. H. McBirney of Tulsa, Oklahoma. The children thus honored are Dorothy, Margaret and Donald.

Then there is the "Wild Bull" mine in Oklahoma. The land was used for pasture at the time drilling operations were started. One of the partners of the lease was looking over the tract when suddenly one of these animals gave chase. From then on the mine was known as the "Wild Bull".

"Diamond Joe" Mine near Qnapaw Oklahoma, derived its name from its owner. When he apeared on the lease he wore so many diamonds and of such size he and his mine were dubbed "Diamond Joe."

The "Kittie Mine," near Cardin, Okla., was named for the tiny Kitten standing near when the first shaft was sunk.

The "Little Shoe" mine which is also near Carlin, Okla., owes its name to a discarded baby shoe which the drill struck when they started operations.

The genealogy of many other mining properties that have odd names probably could be traced to some contemporary incident, hobby, affection or other predilection. Think of changing the name of Fort Gibson, Okla., where stands the ruins of Jeff Davis' cabin—who would want to change the queer names of some of these little Oklahoma towns named by the Indians ages ago, names like Oolagah, Okla., meaning, No Good; Nowata, Okla.,—when Indians settled there they could find no water and called the spot Nowata; Lenapah, Okla., means "bad man." In those days past it was the home of the gun-men and bank robbers.

Claremore, Okla., the home of the Cherokee comedian, Will Rogers, was named for the Cherokee chief Claremore.

Even near Centerville are towns named for some reason or person—take Decoto—we all know how it derived its name. Perhaps Irvington, being in Washington Township, might be connected with the name of Washington Irving. I would suggest that all the people who object to the names given little or large towns that have weathered the storms and strifes of centuries, club together and start towns for themselves, then they can select names that suit them.

CENTERVILLE TO HOLD ITS NAME IDENTITY

The people of Centerville have decided two to one to keep the name of their beloved town, Centerville. Ballots to change the name were published recently on which the residents expressed their opinion.

The proponents who wished to replace the name by an industrial title say it was only meant for a joke. Anyhow, it woke some of the people up.

Alleged Kidnaper's Trial Is Postponed

Preliminary hearing of Frank A. Tortorelle, charged with kidnapping and attempting assault upon a 14-year-old grammar school girl was postponed at a hearing before Judge Allen G. Norris Tuesday, upon the request of the defendant.

It is reported that Tortorelle's mother is enroute from Minneapolis to assist in his defense. The court room was packed to capacity Tuesday, scores waiting outside who could not gain entrance. It is reported that Tortorelle seemed to be nervous when led through the crowd by Constables Tom Silva and Manuel J. Bernardo.

C. E. Waterbury made a business trip to San Francisco on Tuesday.

MRS. BENDEL SPEAKS ON CHILD READING

Interesting Program At Centerville P.T.A. Meeting

The Centerville Grammar School Parent-Teachers' Association held, on Thursday, one of the most interesting meeting of the year with an attendance of twenty members.

The school orchestra played several selections in a manner that showed the improvement the boys are making. The P. T. A. song was sung by the members.

An instructive talk on "Children's Reading" was charmingly given by Mrs. Roland Bendel, chairman of the Children's Book Section. Mrs. Bendel stressed four ways of encouraging children to read good books; propinquity, the practice of leaving desirable books open where the child may pick them up; possession, the purchase of good books so that the child may say, "This book is mine;" book-reviewing in the grades; and last but far from least, the age old practice of the mothers' reading to the child, the best books or stories.

Mrs. C. E. Anderson gave an interesting report on the monthly meeting of the Big Sisters of Oakland.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

Thief Steals Gold Plate Teeth from Dentist Eaton

Some unknown thief stole a gold plate of teeth from the office of Dr. Dubois Eaton, and some small change from the office of the Health Center next door, last Thursday between 12 and 1 o'clock while Eaton was at lunch. The robber walked right into the dentist's office, but he had to pry the Health Center's door open.

No clues were left which could lead to the apprehension of the maurderer.

UNIQUE STUNT FOR RAISING P.T.A. MONEY

Mrs. L. A. Solon Sells Cake for $5.50 Tuesday

The latest stunt for raising money for the Parent-Teacher program was launched at the meeting Tuesday by Mrs. L. A. Solon, who made a cake, sold it for ten cents a slice and cleared $5.50 for Parent-Teacher Association funds.

This idea was introduced by Mrs. Ellen Habenicht at the beginning of the season who started the ball rolling by giving a luncheon for the Chamber of Commerce and teachers, a considerable sum being netted at this affair.

COMMERCE BODY TO HAVE SPECIAL MEETING TUESDAY

A meeting of unusual interest is schduled for the Chamber of Commerce next Tuesday. Major William Barbee, of Oakland Chamber of Commerce, will be present to speak on "Inter-City Cooperation." Major Barbee is also connected with the Fred T. Wood real estate company.

Representatives of the State Peace Officers' Association are also expected to speak with regard to the convention to be held in Oakland, September 16-18.

Niles Thoroughly Advertised At Presentation of "Daddies"

Niles received more than its share of advertising at the theater party given by the Oakland Advertising Club at the Dufwin Monday evening, twenty-two reservations having been made for the Niles delegation.

Banners were provided by the Oakland organization bearing the name of the various groups represented and delegates marched upon the stage carrying these insignia which will be stored away until June when they will be used in the Pacific Adevertising Club Association convention which is to occur at that time.

Mike Cohen, director of publicity for the Vitaphone theater, and master of ceremonies told the audience of the organization of the Niles Advertising Club and the visit of the Oakland Ad Club members here last week. "There were twenty-nine present at that meeting," said Mr. Cohen, "and twenty-two of them here tonight. That's what I call cooperation."

Various stunts were put on between acts and Miss Caroline Gilman lead the community singing when the convention songs were rendered.

The play itself was a most excellent perfermance, the hearty laughter and applause of the capacity audience evincing their utmost approval of "Daddies." The girls were pretty, the children clever and the bachelors as funny as bachelors always are. Anybody who needs a series of side-splitting laughs for the sake of his soul is advised to attend at least one performance of "Daddies."

Due to the fact that seats had been on sale for two weeks and that there was a rush for this popular affair the Niles delegation were not able to sit in a group but were scattered from the front row to the back. However, the important point is that Niles was most thoroughly advertised and that was the result desired.

Niles Parent-Teachers Have Largest Membership In County

Niles Parent-Teacher Association of the Grammar School stands first in the county in membership, according to an announcement made at the meeting held Tuesday afternoon by the president, Mrs. Harvey Braun. The total membership is 82, thirty of whom are "Dads."

The idea of the Dad's Dinner which proved such a success last month originated with Mrs. Roland Bendel who was general chairman of the occasion. A three-fold purpose is served in enlisting the membership of the fathers—the association stands a fair chance of winning the prize offered for increased membership, the organization is benefitted by the interest of the fathers and the treasury is supplemented; and third, the dad's themselves are suppose to get some good out of the project.

P.T.A. TEACHES GIRLS ART OF CANDY MAKING

Mrs. C. E. Martenstein Begins New Dept. of Association

Friday afternoon girls of the seventh and eighth grades at the Niles Grammar school will be given a lesson in candy-making by Mrs. C. E. Martenstein as a new feature of the P.T.A. work. It is hoped that this will develop into something worthwhile for the school and will be one more point of contact between the Parent-Teachers' Association and the pupils.

The sugar will be furnished by the P.T.A. It is probable that other members of the organization will act as cooking instructors at future meetings and that something besides candy will be the object of study. As the idea was that of Mrs. Martenstein, it is probable that she will be general chairman of this department.

Summer's Extension.

Indian summer is a name applied to a short season of pleasant weather which occurs in the Central and Atlantic coast states usually during the month of October and November, but more rarely in December. Indian summer is characterized by an almost cloudless sky, calm or light air, hazy atmorphere, and a mild temperature in the daytime, although cool at night. This period may last two or three weeks and may occur two or three times during a season. The theory has been advanced that early settlers may have given the bright warm days of autumn the name of Indian summer because it was as gaudy as the Indians in their war paints. Another idea is that at this season the Indians often went to war because the bright autumn colors served as camouflage for them. There is no actual record of the use of the term until 1774, when it was in general use throughout the Atlantic states.

Personal Mention.

Earl Teeter visited relatives in San Francisco Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver attended a birthday party Saturday night given in honor of Robert Gerick, at the home of his sister, Mrs. M. Little, of Fruitvale. Many other guests from Oakland and San Francisco were also present,all of whom had a most enjoyable time. Favors and decorations carried out the motif of St. Patrick's Day.

Richard Davis, formerly one of the Niles boys, was a visitor in town Monday. While here he called on old pals and acquaintances. Mr. Davis is residing in Hayward at present.

H. Walton and H. B. Rathbun spent Monday in Oakland.

Mrs. J. P. Moniz and Theodore Moniz of Edenvale and Miss Margaret Gomes, of San Jose, were guests in the home of A. F. Maderrios, of Niles Canyon, on Sunday.

Ray Davis and family spent Sunday in Santa Cruz.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Hadad were guests in the home of friends in Sunnyvale on Sunday.

Miss Margaret Kling attended the demonstrations at the Marcus LeSoine establishment in San Francisco Monday. She is learning the latest methods of permanent waving on the new machines.

Mrs. A. A. Hatch will entertain the Welfare Club No. 1, at her home, Monday afternoon, March 18. Plans will be made for the dance to be given at the Garden of Allah on April 13.

The Parent-Teachers' Association of Mission San Jose cleared $90 on the card party they gave recently.

Two babies arrived recently at the Silva Maternity Home—a seven and a quarter pound son to Mrs. M. Lewis, of Alviso; and a nine and a half pound boy to Mrs. Andrews of Newark.

Mrs. Harvey Braun was in Oakland Wednesday.

Donald Ryan, of San Francisco, was a guest of Dr. and R. H. Bennett, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Griffith and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Steele, of Cupertino, were visitors in Niles Sunday.

Speed of Falling Body.

An experiment was recently conducted to determine how fast a man falls when dropped from a great height. The velocity was found to be considerably lower than that deducted from the theory of falling bodies. Were there no atmosphere a man would fall 16 feet the first second, 64 feet in two seconds; 264 feet in four seconds; 1,024 feet in eight seconds, etc., the distance increasing as the square of the time. Due to the resistance of the air however, there comes a time when the velocity is no longer increased. This is known as the "terminal velocity" and was found to be less than 200 miles an hour. It was reached after the man (dummy) had fallen 1,600 feet.

Daring Air Thieves.

Explorers in Abyssinia report that there are many birds of prey in that country, the most daring of which, and the most common, is the kite. Flocks of them will sit for hours in the trees near the camp waiting for an opportunity to steal a meal from the cook tent. In this they will often take great chances and they have been known to dart across the cook's fire and steal food from his pans on the stove. They have no hesitation in stealing food from any wild animal they encounter which happens to be enjoying a meal.

Everyday Dishes

A POT roast when well cooked is one of the most appetizing of dishes. Buy a four or five-pound piece of beef from the rump, round or chuck, wipe with a damp cloth to remove any fine bones. Dredge with flour, add seasonings and put into a kettle with three tablespoonfuls of sweet fat; sear on all sides, turning carefully not to pierce the meat and lose the juices. Now add a few tablespoonfuls of water, just enough to steam and cook slowly; add a tablespoonful or two at a time, as the water cooks away. Cook about three hours until the meat is very tender. Adding a clove of garlic stuck with cloves, or an onion with cloves gives a fine flavor to the meat without being at all objectionable to the most particular. If desired, carrots, string beans or other vegetables may be added to the roast.

Beef a la Mode.—Prepare a five-pound pot roast as above. Mix one teaspoonful of salt, one-eighth teaspoonful of pepper, one tablespoonful of minced onion, the same of minced parsley, one teaspoonful of thyme and two bay leaves chopped fine. Cut one-fourth pound of salt pork into thin strips and roll in the seasonings. Cut gashes all over the meat one-half inch deep and insert the seasoned strips of pork. Roll the roast in one-half cupful of vinegar and let stand over night or from early morning to luncheon. Chop two onions and brown in one tablespoonful of fat. Put in the roast and brown on all sides. Add five scraped carrots, two turnips cut into pieces and one can of tomatoes. Cover tightly and simmer three hours.

Chicken and Almond Sandwiches.—Take one cupful of cooked chicken and one cupful of chopped almonds blanched, add two or three tablespoonfuls of thick cream, salt, pepper, a little paprika and spread on slices of buttered graham bread.

The community was saddened last Thursday to hear of the death of Fred J. Donahue at his home in Oakland, where he was found dead that morning by his wife when she went to call him to breakfast. For the past twenty years Donahue had been practising law in Oakland where for a number of years he had been affiliated with the district attorney's office and in the police courts, of that city, as a prosecuting attorney. He was greatly respected by all with whom he came in contact and was known as an honorable and upright citizen. He had an extensive acquaintance in this city and throughout the valley. A native of Mission San Jose, he spent all of his life in Alameda County. His passing is mourned by his widow and two daughters and numerous relations among whom is his brother William H. Donahue of Oakland. The funeral took place on Saturday morning, with a requiem mass at the St. Francis de Sales Church in Oakland and interment at Holy Sepulcher Cemetery at Hayward. Among those who attended the funeral from this community were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gale, Mrs. Frank Donohue, Miss Marie and Frank W. Donohue, Mrs. Con Nevin and Everett Nevin, Mrs. Charles H. Schween and Ernest W. Schween, Mrs. Clara Owens, Thomas Green and Charles S. Graham.

E. R. CULLINS, ADVERTISING MANAGER OF THE SCHENECTADY (N. Y.) UNION STAR, SAYS:

THAT the geographical extent of your community is circumscribed almost precisely by extent to which news and happenings of the territory covered have a common interest. With your newspaper ever reaching out and interesting folks in a constantly increasing radius, these additional families are becoming interested in what is happening in any portion of the territory covered, but particularly in the central point.

Shrewd merchants are quick to appreciate this fact as is shown by the record of 1928 gains in volume of business by keen managers of department and chain stores. Intelligent and persistent advertising has aided these stores in adding new customers and making their high sales records. To have goods on the shelves is not enough, the progressive merchant must tell his world about them, and he depends more and more on his newspaper to not only reach his logical market but to add to it from month to month and year to year.

YOUR NEWSPAPER AND YOUR ADVERTISING STORE ARE PERFORMING A PUBLIC SERVICE FOR YOUR COMMUNITY BY ENLARGING ITS MARKET THROUGH INTERESTING NEW FOLKS IN THE THINGS IN WHICH THEY HAVE A VITAL INTEREST.

Niles to Hear of Meeting of Peace Officers' Association

Lieut. G. W. Golubeff and Ray Fisher, representing the State Peace Officer's Convention to be held in Oakland, September 16-18, were in Niles Wednesday enlisting the support of local citizens in their project. They will present this matter before the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday.

At present the Peace Officers' Association has about 4,000 members. Governor C. C. Young is an honorary member. C. W. Potter, Chief of Police of Stockton, is the president. Sheriff Burton F. Becker and Chief of Police Donald L. Marshall, of Oakland are interested members.

The object of the organization is three-fold; to bring about closer cooperation among all law enforcing officers, to detect crime and to prevent crime.

"It is often unfortunately true that there arises a misunderstanding between district attorneys, sheriffs, constables or other peace officers to the extent that law enforcement suffers," said Lt. Golubeff. "The purpose of this organization is to iron out these little difficulties and bring about a feeling of friendliness and understanding."

The convention which is to be held in Oakland is the ninth annual affair.

One of the important matters that may be brought out at this meeting will be the matter of federal aid to local peace officers. It has been suggested that in line with President Hoover's law enforcement idea some plan may be worked out along this line.

According to the national directory of peace officers the following names are recorded for Niles:

William Hellion, Ed Rose, Jack Williamson, J. D. Ferry, H. B. Rathbun, Dr. Chas. Law, A. Cozzi, Frank Rose, George Roeding, Edward Secada, Louis Peggatto, Louie DiGuilio, Frank Martunelle, H. Wilcox, E. E. Dias, Jack Alberg, H. M. Smtih.

Mutual Advocates Change in Calendar

Thirteen months of twenty-eight days is the new calendar just adopted for business purposes by the Mutual Stores, large chain grocery company operating a store in Niles.

This calendar is identical with the so-called "reformed" calendar now being advocated by scholars, statesmen and business men throughout the world. If adopted, every month would start on Monday, all holidays would fall on the same day every year, and every month would contain twenty-eight days.

The extra day needed to make up the three hundred and sixty five in the year would be New Year's Day, which would not be counted as an ordinary day. During leap year, a second extra day would have to be inserted in the middle of the year.

While the Mutual Stores are unable to regulate the days upon which holidays fall, they are taking the lead in the calendar reform movement which is being considered by many large business firms. By making every month the same length, many problems of accounting are simplified, the cost of doing business is reduced, and greater efficiency results throughout the organization.

Hayward Urged To Aid Welfare Work

Evidence of what he characterizes as a lack of social responsibility was deplored by E. W. Burr, chairman of the Niles' children's home of the Southern Alameda County Welfare Board, preliminary to the monthly meeting of the board Monday when ways and means of procuring a permanent donation for maintenance of the home were considered.

Eden township is remiss in donating for the home upkeep, Burr declared. Murray, Pleasanton and Washington townships, aiding in the campaign, are collecting their quotas in good shape, while this township has only about one-third of the required amount pledged. The permanent fund is absolutely essential to continuation of the home, which has already proved its worth, Burr explains.

BOY SCOUTS TO STAGE AIRPLANE MODEL CONTEST

Local Troop Will Enjoy Hike Saturday Afternoon

Niles Boy Scouts will enjoy a hike this Saturday afternoon, leaving the Schuckl Cannery office at one o'clock under the supervision of J. E. Townsend, and A. F. Johnson, of the scout committee. One group will leave about twenty minutes before the second group which will have to pick up the "trail" by observing certain scout signals.

This hike was postponed from last Saturday because of bad weather.

Local boy scouts will also engage in an airplane model contest, the models to be judged by members of the scout committee. This will have no affiliation with the Oakland contests.

Dr. R. H. Bennett has been made a member of the scout committee to replace Don Yslas who is leaving town.

daily held in greater contempt by those who are not in sympathy with its provisions or who profit by its nullification. Still the president's words would have carried a greater conviction with his arid friends had he not chosen to carry out his bold words a man shockingly out of harmony with prohibition, an ex-brewer of beer—Mellon—who for years has tried his best to make prohibition unpopular by the futility of its enforcement. In one breath, the President says the constitution must be upheld, and in the next he nullifies this splendid propoundment by signally honoring one who has not upheld that constitution to the best of his ability.

Hoover, in our humble judgment, has made an irreparable error at the start. He has thrown suspicion upon his determination to be the head in fact as well as in theory, of the American government. Mellon has been running affairs at Washington for a long time—running them to the joy of the moneyed aristocracy of this supposed democracy. The imputation must now go forth that he will continue to dominate the present administration, and that Mellon, not Hoover, is the actual leader of the Republican party.

There are great and perplexing problems before the young administration to be solved immediately that distress of unemployment may be lessened and the lethargy of business be dissipated.

** * **

We are of open mindedness. Herbert Hoover has the goodwill and support of all men who believe in good government and equality of opportunity. If the President makes a success in a manner that posterity will revere his name, then you and we will benefit, and benefitting, naturally applaud.

The Ship of State has changed its course from that mapped by the framers of the Declaration of Independence. The government has become in recent years the prize of capital, swayed by its every whim. Hoover, as pilot, must ride a rising sea, calling for the fearlessness of a Paul Jones and the craftsmanship of a Franklin. He must turn the vessel in midocean and again steer the craft from the turbulent waters of profitless prosperity to those of the placid current of human rights. The gale of special privilege will rock the boat and beat its prow; and over its deck will break the spray of class government. A determined hand must hold the wheel in that hour when the vessel again seeks the charted course that will carry it safely back to the harbor of true Republicanism.

Buddy Rogers takes the part of a young man very much in love. The second big picture is "The Woman from Moscow." In this Pola Negri has the leading role, and she acts the part with all the verve and fire of her inimitable nature.
